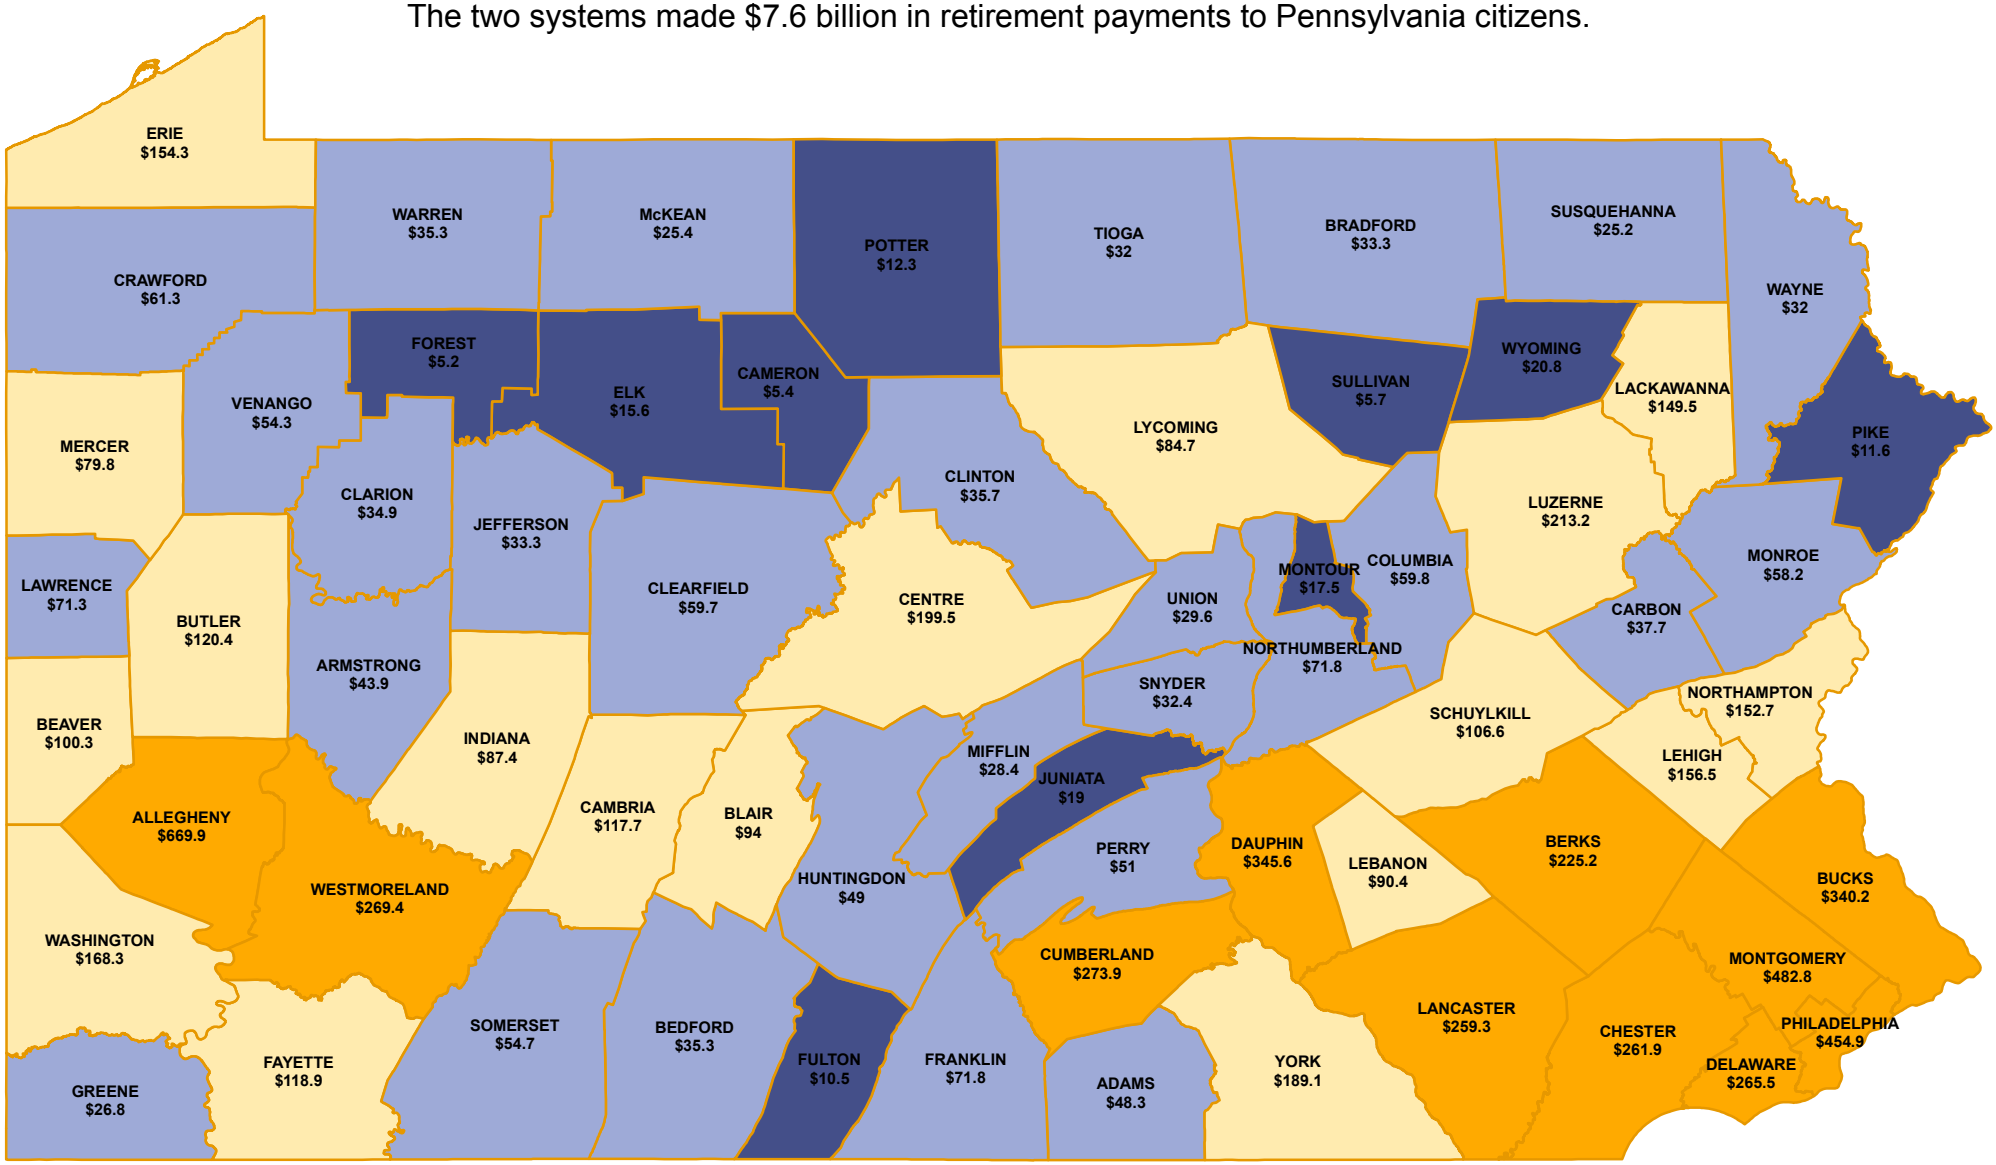
School and State Employee Pension Benefits Inject Millions into County Economies Across Pa. ($ millions)

Retirement payments from Pennsylvania's two statewide retirement systems positively impact the state's economy in 2012. The two systems made $7.6 billion in retirement payments to Pennsylvania citizens.

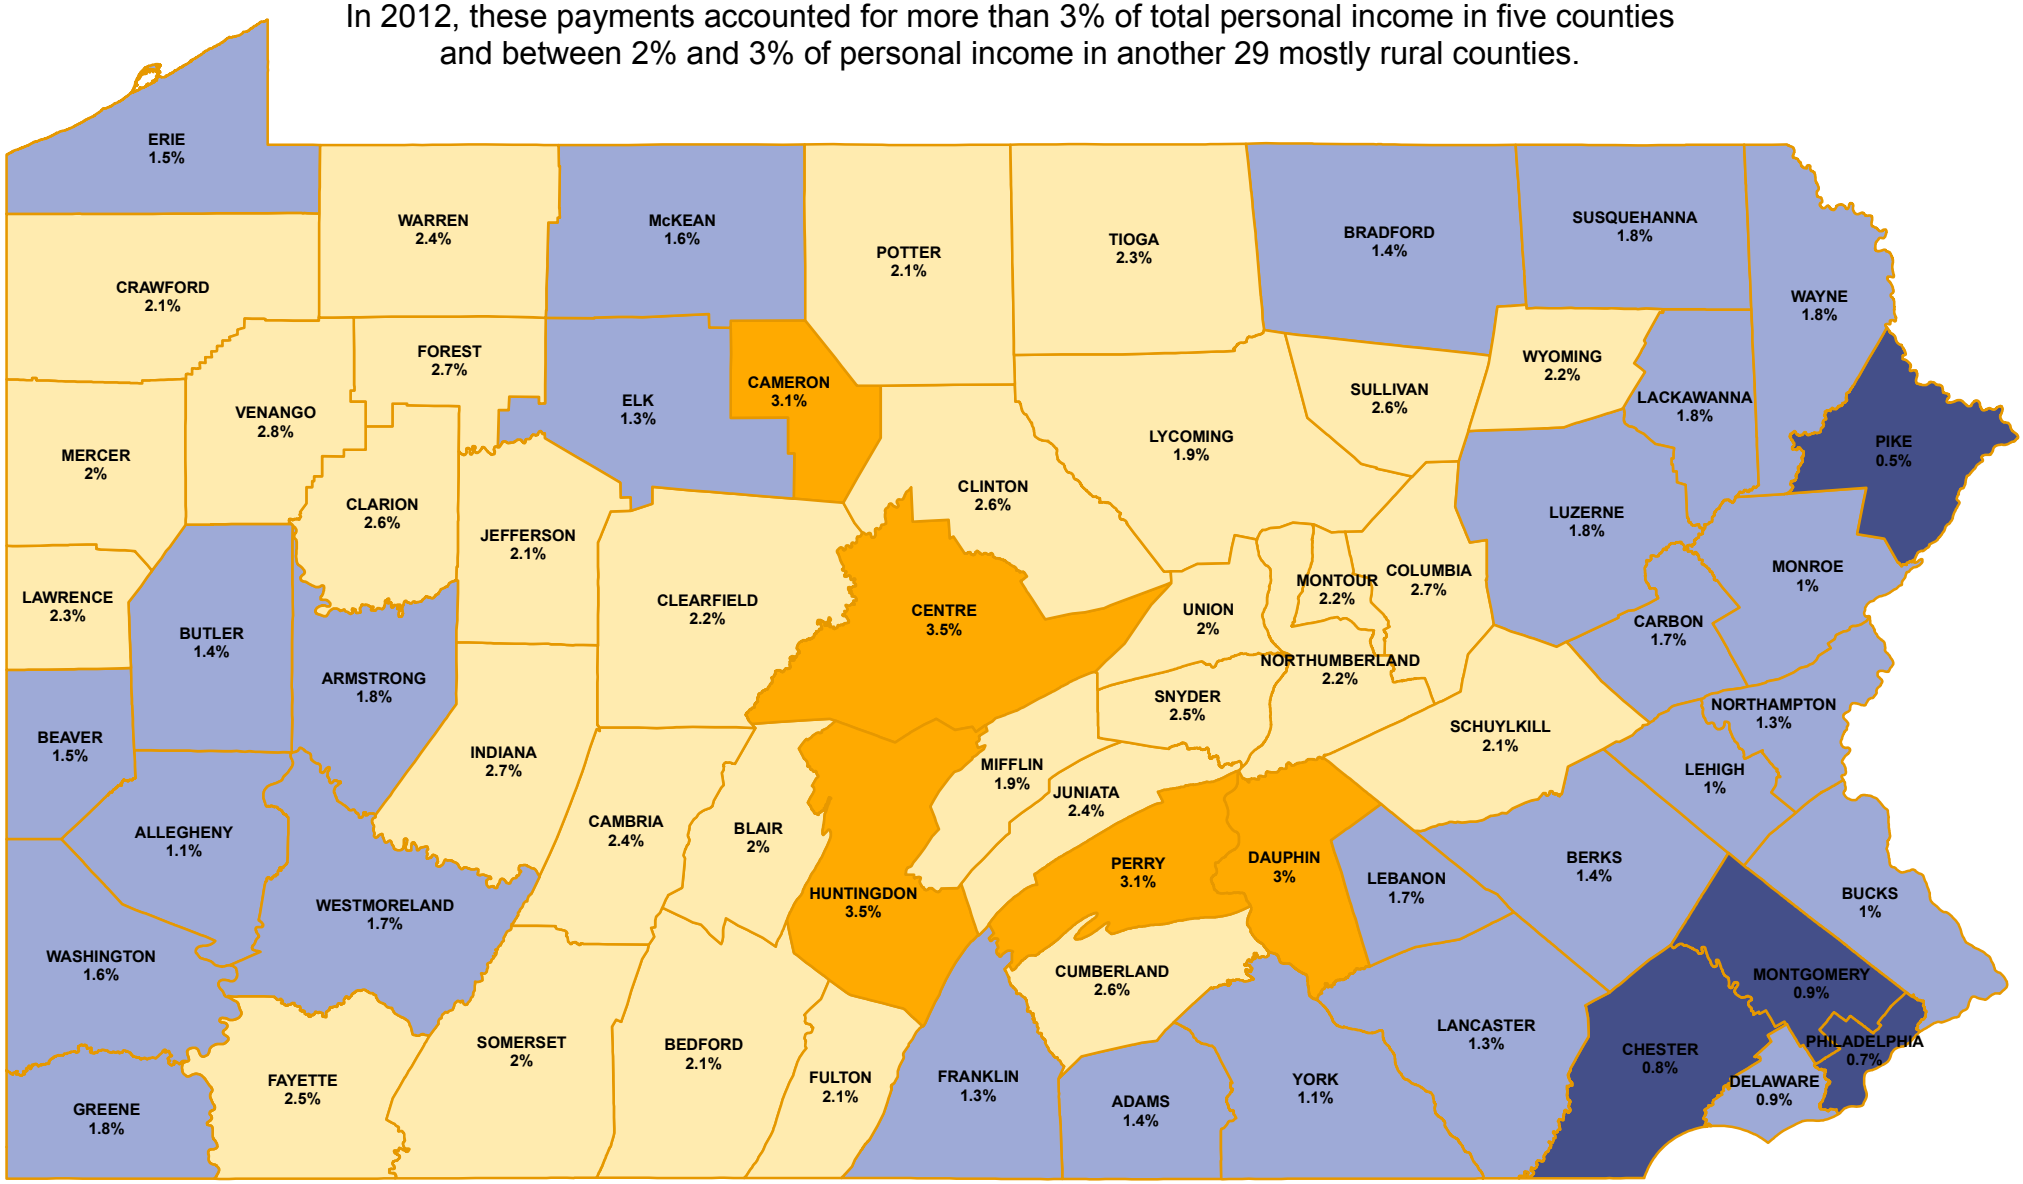


Sources. State Employees' Retirement System and Public School Employees' Retirement System

KRC • KEYSTONE RESEARCH CENTER

School and State Employee Pension Benefits Account for 2% or More of Personal Income in Over Half of Pa.'s 67 Counties

Retirement payments from Pennsylvania's two statewide retirement systems positively impact the state's economy. In 2012, these payments accounted for more than 3% of total personal income in five counties and between 2% and 3% of personal income in another 29 mostly rural counties.



Greater than 3% | 2.0% - 2.9% | 1.0% - 1.9% | 0.5% - 0.9%

Sources. State Employees' Retirement System and Public School Employees' Retirement System

KRC • KEYSTONE RESEARCH CENTER